National Professional Qualification for Leading Literacy

The National Professional Qualifications (NPQs) are a group of widely recognised professional qualifications designed to meet the needs of education leaders in England. NPQs provide extensive training and support for current and aspiring leaders at all levels.

The NPQ for Leading Literacy is a brand new qualification, launching October 2022.

The NPQ for Middle Leadership has been replaced with four new specialist qualifications: NPQ for Leading Teacher Development (NPQLTD), NPQ for Leading Behaviour and Culture (NPQLBC), NPQ for Leading Teaching (NPQLT) and now the brand-new NPQ for Leading Literacy (NPQLL), designed for teachers who want to broaden and deepen their expertise in specialist areas within educational settings.

The National Professional Qualification for Leading Literacy (NPQLL) is designed for teachers who have, or aspire to have, responsibilities for leading literacy across a school, year group, key stage or phase.

Individuals working in this type of role often contribute to strategic school development, lead a team of teachers, and are focused on supporting effective teaching of literacy across the school.

They need to have expertise across several specialist areas and have a thorough understanding of the pupils and colleagues they work with, all while maintaining the highest professional conduct as set out in the Teachers' Standards, to ensure staff and pupils can thrive.

The course curriculum aims to develop flexible expertise to support individuals when faced with the range of challenges they will encounter. The NPQLL course curriculum also includes subject-specific, phase-specific and domain-specific materials to enable participants to develop expert teaching practice within their relevant context. The programme is designed in partnership with the National Literacy Trust, and with expert inputs from our partner schools and settings. This ensures all content is up-to-date, relevant and immediately applicable for all participants.

Our NPQLL programme is designed in partnership with the National Literacy Trust.

Leading improvement in the teaching of literacy

All our NPQs begin with an introduction to our approach to capacity development and managing improvement through implementation. This approach is then embedded throughout the duration of the programme.

You will focus on developing mastery of relevant expertise, gaining the knowledge and tools to develop others, and extending your influence across a school, phase or department.
